TALES FROM THE BOULEVARD

September 1992 and the class of '96 entered the seemingly huge Abington High School with lots of anticipation and little direction. We were freshman and in those days that meant "Honor thy Seniors!" — believe it or not — a freshman really can fit into those four inch lockers. We were led by President Meg Hazen, Secretary Kellie Emanuel, Treasurer Tricia Keough, and Vice President Peter DiMartino, the only boy ever to hold class office. Immediately upon our entrance to the high school, we had something in common with the rest of the student body: fear of the new vice principal and disciplinarian, Ms. Wheatley-Dyson. Lunch was the most dreaded part of our day. Finding a seat at the rectangular tables nearest the exits was quite a challenge. We freshmen bolted out the door before getting trampled by the senior football players. That was back in the day when we cared about being late for class.

September 1993 and the sophomore class seemed to be lost in the crowd. We were too old to be called newcomers, yet too young to be considered upperclassmen. That year, things started to change. A new swarm of young teachers invaded the school and it was obvious that A.H.S. would never be the same. Our classes seemed to be interrupted daily with bomb threat evacuations, which did not phase us by June. On St. Patrick's Day our class rings were delivered and we showed them off with pride. That year, we were led by President Meg Hazen, Vice President Jessica Lapidés, Secretary Kellie Emanuel, and Treasurer Tricia Keough.

August 1994 (who said school is supposed to start after Labor Day?) and we had finally achieved the long-awaited title of "upperclassmen". Along with our new title came a new principal, Mrs. Dowling, who introduced many changes to our school, including opening the Egyptian bathrooms for student use. Shortly after, the bomb threats were replaced with arson and the lavs were locked once again. This was the year when the most popular question asked was "Who has an appointment at the registry today?" We cruised down "The Boulevard" with the music blaring and as many people as we could fit in our cars. Mobil was the official meeting place of A.H.S. This was the life. With the new freedom of a license came a new sense of rebellion. Toilet papering and car wars were a nightly occurrence. We were led by President Meg Hazen, Vice President Regina Harris, Secretary Katie Allen, and Treasurer Jill Kenney. There was an abundance of fundraisers and activities such as the first ever Junior Class Auction, a Thanksgiving Day Raffle, and a ski trip to Attitash. The excitement of the prom and the building of the castle united the individual members into the "Class of 1996". On May 19, we held our Junior Prom "And When She Danced" at Lantana in Randolph. Tricia Keough and Peter DiMartino were selected as Prom Queen and King. We left our Junior year with excitement towards our upcoming final year and the arrival of Mrs. Flaherty's baby.

August (again!!) 1995 meant that we were finally seniors. It was funny that being seniors didn't feel any different. College visits, SAT preparation, and application essays occupied much of our time. On October 6, Deborah and Brownie won the "Baby Pool" as Mrs. Flaherty delivered Katelyn Elizabeth. Lunch was no longer the most dreaded part of our day. Through our years at A.H.S. we had slowly crossed to "the other side of the lunchroom". We now resided at the round tables in the far corner near the juice machine. The Senior Girl Pizza Club had three large pizzas delivered every Friday and Chipwiches were the most popular item on the menu. School spirit ran in our blood the week of Homecoming. It began that Monday, when Coach Kelliher started the chant "Go Wave, Beat E.B.!" By Friday, the Senior halls were decorated and the student body was in an uproar. Jennifer Theriault and Joe Sannella were elected Homecoming Queen and King. The bathrooms were opened once again, the bathrooms were vandalized, and the bathrooms were closed. We were once again led by Meg, Regina, Katie, and Jill, Mr. Listernick replaced Ms. Wheatley-Dyson as our new assistant principal. The "Match Boys" controversy really lit up the school. Many campaigned for the release of Chris and Guiseppe as they waited out their sentence at home.

So, as we leave A.H.S., the Class of '96 will leave a mark that won't be forgotten. We will advance far beyond Abington High, but our memories here will always be with us.

On Friendship

Of all the lessons I was taught in high school, I do not remember any of my teachers ever talking about the importance of friends. My parents never mentioned this either. I assumed my friends would be a part of my life forever. No one ever warned me that college or a war or changing interests would separate me from my friends, or that I would make new friends that I would hold even closer to my heart.

As many of you do today, I had different group of friends for different activities. Some of them I only saw at dances across town where we thought the guys were better looking. Others shared my love for Boston and were willing to take the bus and subway ride to get there, telling our parents we had to do our research at the Boston Public Library (as if the teachers had forced us to go there) when we were really pretending to be sophisticated city kids. My closest friends were in my classes, had witnessed my small successes (like learning to play tennis to get a semi-formal dance date), knew what really frightened me and what made me laugh. I told them my deepest secrets, never worrying about my confidences being betrayed, and agonized with them over theirs.

I remained in contact with my four closest friends through college, writing letters and visiting them a few times a year. We continued to share what was most important about our lives, new experiences, new loves, our commitment to the political and social causes that were so important to us. Without realizing that it was happening, though, the letters and the phone calls became less frequent. We began journeys of our own — a new job, marriage, a baby, struggled with new issues, and slowly lost touch with one another.

Every once in a while, a memory crosses my thoughts that reminds me of something that happened to one of us when we were trying to figure out who we were and what we wanted in life. Songs on the radio can place me back arguing vehemently about what I thought was selfishness in one friend and what was really depression, or in front of the television in 1968, hoping another friend's unit was safe on an air base in Viet Nam, or knowing another was happy with her life even though she was a long way off from nursing school. I know my friends taught me to believe in myself, take a stand about what I believed in and kept me humble. I believe they remain a part of me and my life forever.

Alexander Pope wrote in his Essay on Man, "Though wert my guide, philosopher, and friend." To Paul and Jonathan and Kathy and Billy, I offer my thanks for years of patience, honesty and acceptance in friendships which have sustained me through junior high and high school and hold a special place in my adult life. To the Class of 1996, I hope you hold fast to the friends who have been an important part of your life and who will see you through the next part of your journey. Take care of one another.

A WORLD OF KNOWLEDGE

Students Jackie Kelleher, Kellie Emanuel, Jen Tempesta, Nicole Momaney, and Renée Gambell learn about sutures on the human skull from Anatomy and Physiology teacher, Mrs. Salvetti-Harris.

Patty Calderón's smile is almost as big as the one on her pumpkin, which she made in Child Development.

Brian Vinal and Bob Workman joke around with their favorite teacher, Mr. Currant.

A goofy Spanish IV class gathers together on one desk and smiles for the camera.

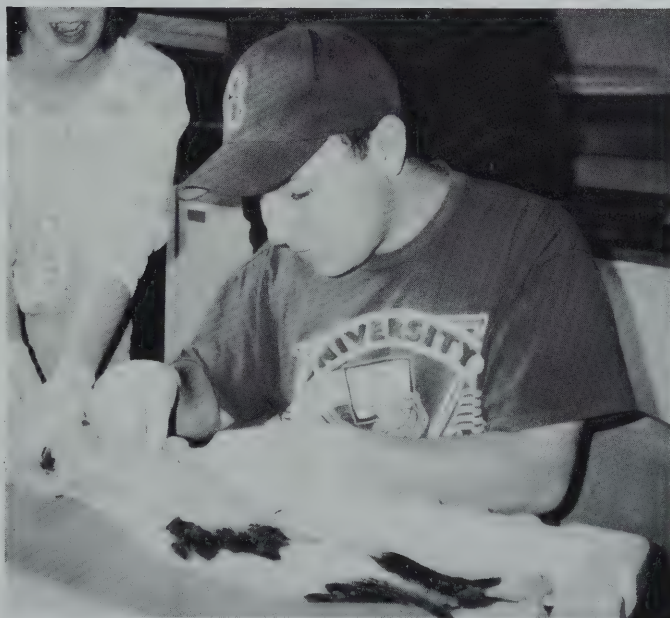

Merv Griffin, masquerading as Mrs. DeLuca, coaches the freshmen on proper etiquette.

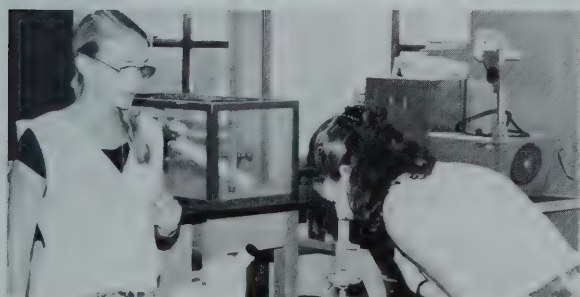

Steve Horsman, Guiseppe Fernia, Renée Gambell, Regina Harris, and Justin Fantasia spend a cold December day launching a mini rocket during Physics class.

A rowdy English class cheers as Mrs. Duerden announces there won't be homework that night.

Bessie the cat silently protests as Mike Kent carefully removes her skin and fur.

Mrs. Salvetti-Harris supervises Jackie Kelleher as she examines a sample of simple epipheial tissue.

Christine Mace, Joel Gordon, Nick Lauretano, and John Tangstrom tear themselves away from Tetris to smile for the camera.

After changing, Mary Clifford and Brianne Baggett chat about the meaning of gym.

Mr. Liberatore and Mr. Shannon are perfect as Dr. Jeckyll and Mr. Hyde.

Regina Harris and Jenn Powers take "time out" to hug their favorite athletic director, Mr. Tobin.

Jenn Powers, Nicole Momaney, and Meg Hazen show off the inside and outside of their pet, Sylvester the cat.

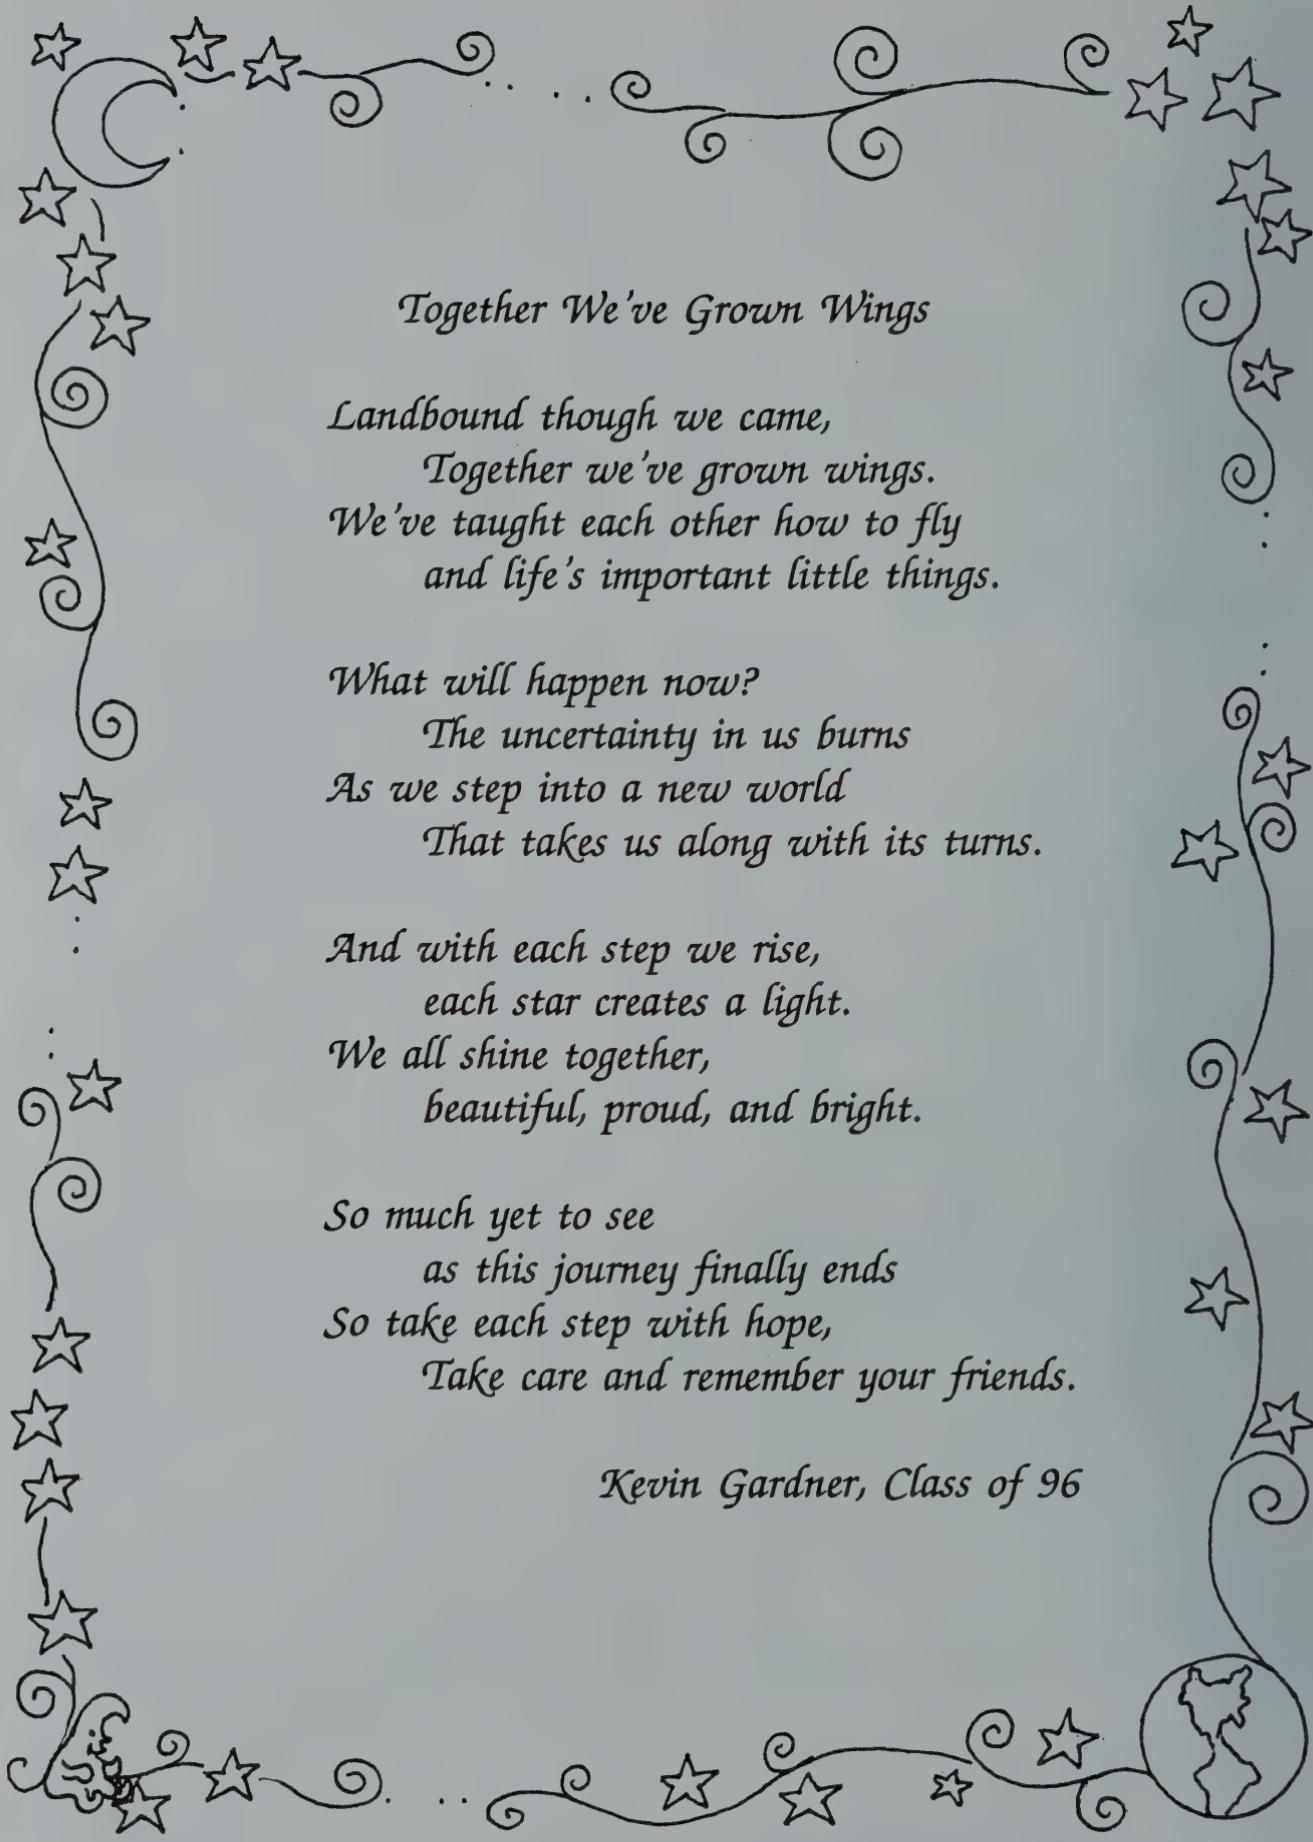

Best friends Jessica Lapidés and Gina Prizio pause a second between classes to give each other a big hug.

Together We've Grown Wings

*Landbound though we came,
Together we've grown wings.
We've taught each other how to fly and life's important little things.*

*What will happen now?
The uncertainty in us burns
As we step into a new world
That takes us along with its turns.*

*And with each step we rise,
each star creates a light.
We all shine together,
beautiful, proud, and bright.*

*So much yet to see as this journey finally ends
So take each step with hope,
Take care and remember your friends.*

CLUBS, ACTIVITIES AND STUDENT LIFE

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Treasurer, Jill Kenney; President, Meg Hazen; Vice-President, Regina Harris; and Secretary, Katie Allen

A WORLD FROM OUR CLASS ADVISOR:

Under the leadership of Meg, Regina, Jill, and Katie, the Class of 1996 strove to be its very best; and, in doing so, created new traditions at Abington High school such as the Junior Class Auction.

Money was earned; castles were built; and memories were made. This class was very special in the way that students pulled together to make all activities — from ski trips to bake sales — successful and fun. Each new project was met with enthusiasm and commitment.

The seniors, and especially their class officers, will be remembered at Abington High school for their innovative ideas and great school spirit. May they continue to set high expectations for themselves and to meet each new challenge with optimism and creativity.

The Best of Luck Always,

A NOTE FROM THE YEARBOOK ADVISOR:

It's hard to believe that I am writing this as we are getting ready to send off the final deadline. I, along with many editors, often wondered if we would ever get this done. It has indeed been a very long journey. It started when seven of us set off for Yearbook Camp in S. Hadley, MA. It was here at Mt. Holyoke College that we learned about the picas, cropping, trapped white space and writing copy. I would have to say that the overall tone of the "Yearbook Crew" was one of optimism. We were determined to have the best yearbook ever. We stayed up late trying to think of themes, we watched new cars to determine the latest trends in colors and most importantly we were excited to head back to Abington to begin work on a yearbook that was sure to be "out of this world." Although our overall goal has not changed, I would have to say that some of our optimism and excitement has been clouded with disappointment, frustration and even anger. As time passed by, and more and more people dropped from our staff, we headed into some difficult times. I am very fortunate, however, to have been able to work with an outstanding editorial staff: Kelly Farrell (Remember When, Class Will/Prophecy), Jeremy Greenwood (Student Life), Regina Harris (Sports), Meg Hazen (Seniors, Clubs and Activities), Nicole LoPorto (Photography, Academics), Jenn Powers (Ads, Clubs and Activities) and Katie Vickery (Superlatives). I would like to thank them all for their hard work and dedication. Thanks to Meg, Jenn and Nicole for taking on the "abandoned sections." Thanks to Kelly for all of the time she put in at her computer coming up with special graphic effects. Thanks to all of you for attending so many yearbook meetings when I am sure you would have much rather been elsewhere. Not only did they attend meetings, but they were always willing to do whatever needed to be done (even if it was not in their section). I would also like to thank Erin Stewart who served as our coordinating editor and made sure everything was organized, and Brianne Baggett, Maureen Hurley and Jeremy Hamilton for all of their help to finishing our yearbook. Special thanks to Junior Tom Collins and Photography Teacher Mrs. Forget for all of the last minute photos they took for us, to help insure that our yearbook would be perfect. To the graduating Senior Class, I hope you appreciate all that we have done to try and give you a high quality yearbook. Congratulations and best wishes for the future. Remember to follow your dreams!!

AND WHEN SHE DANCED

*The Abington High School Class of Nineteen Hundred and Ninety-Six cordially invites you to their Junior Prom
on Friday, the nineteenth of May Nineteen hundred and ninety-five at seven o'clock Lantana's
Randolph, Massachusetts*

Once upon a time on a rainy day in May an excited Junior Class and their dates arrived like royalty at the Castle A.H.S. to begin their magical night together. Friends and family gathered and patiently awaited the crowning of the new King and Queen and their court. From there, they were taken by limousine to the ball, held at Lantana's in Randolph for a night of dining and dancing.

When the clock struck midnight, we transformed back to high school kids. Gowns and tuxes were replaced by jeans and t-shirts and off to the breakfast we went. Our Junior Prom was a night that we will never forget, and we all lived happily ever after.

Thanks to our advisor Ms. Flaherty for all her time and effort.

“If the kids want a castle, we’ll build them a castle.”

OUT OF TIME...

CLOSING

CLOSING REMARKS

We've finally reached the end of our years in high school. For so long this day seemed so far away. We've all had our good times as well as our bad. New friendships have been made and old ones have been ended. These four years have seen all of us grow and mature from timid freshmen, carefully avoiding our elders, to young men and women ready to go out and make our mark on this world.

In the future, we will never all be together again. We will go our separate ways, traveling across the country and around the world, united only by our memories of times spent at Abington High School. We must cherish the last of our days together. Once they are gone, high school is over and we have no choice but to move on. I hope that everyone enjoyed this time in their life. As the years go by and we grow further and further apart; do not forget what happened here, the good and the bad, for these experiences are what shaped who you are today and who you will become tomorrow.

SPECIAL THANKS TO . . .

MR. CORCORAN:

We'd like to thank him for all of his years of service as our media specialist. As a "study hall chaperone" and owner and operator of the "after school arcade" he is a friend and mentor to all of the students. Even though he was not in charge of the yearbook this year, we thank him for all of his helpful hints. We wish him well in retirement — whether it be this year or next.

MRS. DAISY:

We thank her so much for all of the long days and nights of hard work that she put into this yearbook as our advisor. She wanted our yearbook to be the best one yet. We appreciate everything she's done, we could never have done it without her.

MRS. DUERDEN:

We'd like to thank her for her dedication to AHS for the last 33 years. She has been a wonderful teacher, colleague and friend. We wish her well in the future. We hope she enjoys her retirement, her travels and her time to Arizona.

MRS. FLAHERTY:

We thank her for being our class advisor for the past 2 years. She has brought us many innovative ideas like the Junior Class Auction and the International Club and she has helped us to achieve things that no one else thought we could (like a huge castle for our prom).

MRS. HARRIS:

We thank her for all of her time and effort that she put into our yearbook. She is an extremely talented artist who worked hard to create the cover, the divider pages and the borders. Without her, this yearbook wouldn't be the same.

MRS. PHILLIPS:

We thank her for 25 years of outstanding service as a math teacher and her dedication as Dept. Head and Advisor to the National Honor Society. Not only is Mrs. Phillips a terrific friend to the faculty, but also to the students. Mrs. Phillips said she "would like to thank the students, faculty and administration for affording me 25 wonderful years."

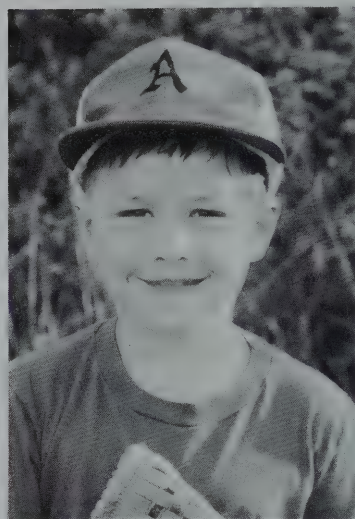

MR. TOBIN:

We'd like to thank him for his 25 years as a Phys. Ed. teacher and Athletic Director here at AHS. Mr. Tobin is a great guy who can always make anyone laugh and we'll miss him very much. We wish him the best in retirement. He would like to say, "I truly enjoyed all the years in Abington. I've met some wonderful people and kids, we are people too." He would also like to remind you "that the will to win is not nearly as important as the will to prepare to win."

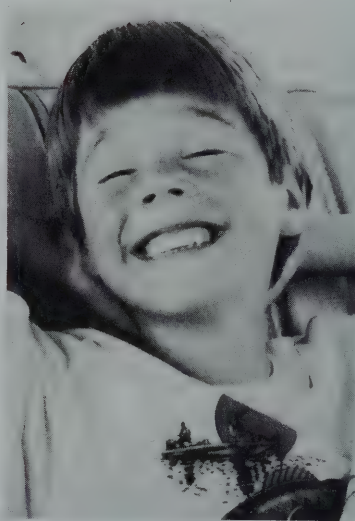

Good Luck
Katie!
Hope all your sand castles last forever and your dreams come true.

Before you were born, we'd dream about what it would be like to have a son . . . You've turned out better than we could ever dream.
Congratulations!
Love, Mom, Dad,
and Scott

A glowing smile, warm heart, involved student,
caring person.
We are very proud of who you are and know the challenges you'll face ahead will be stepping stones to the accomplished person you'll become.
Love,
Mom, Dad,
Billy, and Brian

Bren — your sense of humor,
quiet confidence, and responsibility will bring you a long way — It's been our pleasure to have a son like you! Looking forward to many more memories.
Love, Mom, Dad,
and Luke

Jenn: May you never lose your enthusiasm for life, your commitment to friends and family, and the love of music and theatre that have made you the special person that you are.
You've always been our "Leading Lady."
Love, Mom, Dad, and Kristin

Congratulations
Patricia! We're proud of you!
You're a class act. Hope you can "Soar Like the Eagle!"
Love, Mom, Dad,
William,
Kristin, Marty, and Donald

To our girl who's always peering ahead to the future — May it be wonderful and happy! We're proud of you and we love you.

Mom, Dad, Trisha, and Marianne

Dear Maureen:
You did a great job! Good luck in all that you do in the future. We are very proud of you!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations!
We are very proud of you. We wish you all the happiness and success in life.

Love Always,
Mom, Warren, Kristine, Alexis, and Lauren

Renee, at this turning point in your life, our hope for your future is that you will live each day fully and cherish your dreams.

Love,
Mom and Dad

To my daughter I'm wishing all the happiness and laughter, all your dreams fulfilled forever and always.

Love, Mom

Congratulations Christine on a job well done. We're very proud of you! Good luck in college.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Kim, and Lindsay

Who would have believed it? You made it! We are all very proud of you.

Love, Mom, Dad, Ginny, All the Sizemores and Hamiltons, too!

Nikki, your arrival was one of the happiest days in our lives! We are very proud of you and all your achievements. Be happy, enjoy life, and be true to yourself.

Love Always,
Mom and Dad

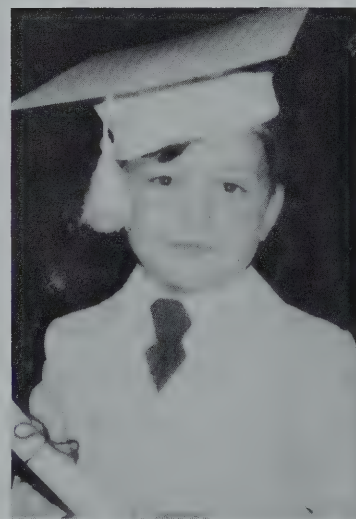

We were proud of you then and we're still proud of our "Big Boy." Congrats!

Mom and Vinnie

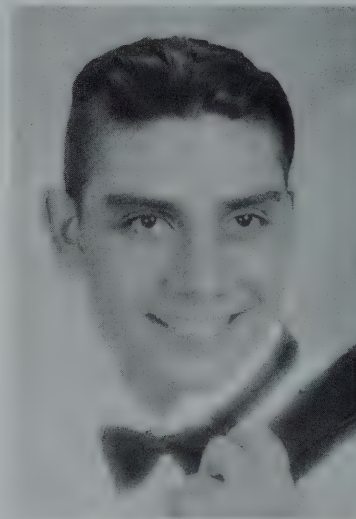

Hija Querida,

The adversities you faced as a child were used, not as an excuse to fail, but as incentives to grow into a strong, committed, beautiful woman. ¡Te quiero tanto! Mom

Ryan, keep your caring personality, positive outlook on life, and sense of purpose and there is nothing you cannot achieve. You're special! I am very proud of you.

Love,
Mom

May your life be all you reach for — all you dream of. We're very proud of you!

Love, Mom, Jim, Tary, Edna, Angela, and Angus

You always knew what you wanted, you worked hard, were thoughtful to others, and believed in yourself — so do we. We wish you the best in life. Congratulations.

Mom and Dad

Congratulations, you are a terrific person and we are very proud of you. May your future bring you success and happiness. Love Ya — Dad, Mom, Heather, and Mike

The years have flown by quickly and you've accomplished so much to be proud of. Our congratulations and love are yours always. Have a wonderful future!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Kim, we are so very proud of you. You can do anything in life, but always remember to have fun in whatever you do. Congratulations!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Jen, We Love You!

Mom and Dad!!

Stevie,
From pre-school to high school you've always made us proud of you. You're the best son anyone could ask for. The future is yours.

Love,
Mom and Dad

You can be anything you want to be as long as you try hard. Congratulations. We Love You, Mom and Dad

Congratulations Kelly! Just as the little girl in this picture has grown . . . So will your goals in life. Enjoy reaching them! We love you — Mom, Dad, Brian, and Meg Best of luck Special. We nearly lost you, but you fought your way back to us. You've come a long way in your year and a half at AHS.

Love,
Mom, Dad,
Brian, Wolf,
Fox, Pie,
and Nala

We give you strength to do your best, never lose sight of your goals and find joy every step of the way.

Good luck in the future. We are very proud of you.

You have always been a joy to live with and I'll miss you when you go off to college. Good luck in your journeys without me!

Jay, it doesn't seem so long ago you graduated from Nursery School, the years fly by, and now you're graduating from High School. Now, as then, you have always made me proud of you. I'll always be there for you!

Love-Ya,
Mom

Best wishes for many years to come. You have been a wonderful daughter and we know you will be successful and happy. Love, Mom, Dad, Jim, and Richard Christopher, it's clear that some people just know what they want to do with their lives. All our love and support, Mom and Pap Deborah, we are so proud of all your accomplishments. We love you. Mom and Dad.

Congratulations Imp from Mom and Dad, Jenny, Sarina, and Craig.

Meg, wherever you go and whatever you do you'll always have our love. We're proud of you.

Love, Mom, Dad, Crisanne, Michael and Katie
